SCHOOLS.

The visiting committee of the school board, submits the following:

During the year, ending February, 1913 there have been six schools in town and each school has been in session 33 weeks.

One hundred and thirty-seven pupils have been enrolled.

Three out-of-town scholars, attending the Orford street school have paid tuition. Ten different teachers have been employed and good faithful work has been done by all.

Tardiness.

This year shows an improvement upon last as regards tardiness, as shown by "the table". Three schools have no tardy marks for one term. We wish that every school might have this report next year.

Text Books.

New readers have been put in the several schools, also some additional language books. Some new charts have been purchased.

Improvements and Repairs.

In the early summer, the wind removed the roof of the out buildings of the school house on the Upper street. This necessitated the replacing and reshingling of the roof, which was done. The outer doors of the school house, also the flag pole, have been painted, greatly improving the general appearance.

The outside doors of the Orford street building have been painted, and the furnace pipes in the basement have been covered with asbestos paper, thus heating the school rooms to better advantage and consuming a smaller amount of fuel.

Thanks to the untiring efforts of Miss Riley, who was heartily assisted by Mrs. Davis, pupils, parents and friends of the school, the fixtures for electric lights were placed in the school rooms without any expense to the district.

At the Ville the out buildings of the school house have been repaired and some cementing has been done to prevent the water flowing into the basement and doing injury to the walls and underpinning.

We are glad to note that more people have "visited" school this year. About 50 more than last year. Still we want we need more visitors. Our yearly invitation is repeated. "Come one, come all."

Do step, at least, inside the school room door, before giving out your opinion on schools.

Graduation.

Graduation was held at Orford street at the church. A class of ten from the Orford street and Orfordville schools graduated with credit to teachers, parents and school board.

Graduates, Class of 1912.

Harland Manchester	Hazel Manchester
Ruth Munn	Warren Greely
Bertha Fuller	Florence Distin
Margaret Brier	Clyde Cutting
Abbie Smith	Harold Hall

The coming year we hope will see a larger number of graduates made up from every school in town.

The visiting committee, if it may be permitted in so public a manner, wishes to thank Miss Claugn for the conscientious work she has done, for so many years in the primary school at Orfordville.

In taking a much needed rest, she takes with her the thanks of many who have made such good progress under her instruction.

In closing, the visiting committee can not say too much concerning the interest, which the Orfordville people, as a whole, take in the schools of the town. They are willing and glad to do anything and everything for the welfare of the schools. Every one takes a personal interest in, and desires good schools.

We thank you all for the help, good wishes and encouragement given to the schools, teachers and school board during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

HITTIE R. CARR,

Visiting Committee.
